Lawsuit Being Filed On County Dump Law

Chouteau Island Group Wants Court Decision On Legality of Ban

A mandamus suit to order county landfill administrators to enforce a Madison county law banning the transportation of trash and garbage from Missouri into Illinois is to be filed in circuit court at Edwardsville by Monday, it was announced at a meeting of the county board of supervisors Wednesday morning.

Carl Buehler, assistant Granite City township supervisor and chairman of the board's sanitation committee, said the suit is being filed in behalf of the Chouteau Island Citizens Association headed by Lester Segg.

The county board unanimously adopted a resolution outlawing the transportation of waste from Missouri to dumps in Madison county as its July meeting.

Enforcement Demand

But Jack Clifford, county sanitation official, has refused to carry out provisions of the law on the advice of Leon Scroggins, state's attorney, who maintains that the resolution is unconstitutional. He said it unlawfully interferes with interstate commerce.

The suit is being filed to permit the courts to determine the legality of the resolution.

Buehler and Gilbert Killinger, Collinsville township supervisor and sponsor of the July resolution, complained that if trash is permitted on the Chouteau Island landfill, it will be filled and closed in a year, giving less space for landfills for county residents.

10 Dumps in County

Only six private landfills and four operated by cities remain in operation, Buehler reported, and some of these are to be closed.

Killinger attacked the opinion of the state's attorney, who was not at the meeting, and cited constitutional grounds for his resolution.

He said the import of Missouri trash deprives Madison county residents of their constitutional rights as the practice contributes to the creation of health problems.

The Chouteau Island Association, which is attempting to rid its area of landfills and which now is incorporating a petition to Gov. Kerner in its efforts but received a reply from the Illinois Health Department which denied their arguments.

The state department said that the landfill meets all specifications, that it constitutes no water pollution problem, that it is not a source of water, that it is not an infested area and that it is not a source of water.

While stopped in traffic, the rear of an auto driven by James Wyatt, 3702 Franklin avenue, was struck by another driven by Dennis Morrison, 3846 B street, Ponton Beach, at Johnson road and Wabash avenue at 5:10 p.m. Wednesday.

Issuance of Ice Rink ID Cards Starts Saturday

Preparation of identification cards for Granite City residents who plan to use the new $200,000 ice skating rink at Wilson Park will start Saturday, it was decided at a meeting of the park board last night.

Equipment for taking the color photos for printed ID cards will be set up for applicants at the park district office from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. Plans also were announced to issue the cards next Monday, Tuesday and Thursday during special hours from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m., also in the park office.

The cards will cost 35 cents for each skater through Dec. 31, when the price will be raised to 50 cents.

Officials said it is more economical to issue the cards in large bunches at the beginning of the skating program. Later, however, as only occasional cards are applied for, it will be necessary to raise the equipment for only one or two cards at a time, resulting in slightly higher costs. Rink fees for residents will be less than that for non-residents.

The park board pointed out that the cost of the cards is not the cost of the materials and the photograph. The ID photo equipment cost the district $300.

Identification cards will be issued to residents within the limits of Granite City, rather than within the limits of the park district, since the park district is responsible for the maintenance of the park.

Granite City property expected to be annexed soon, officials noted.

Contributions of $57,000 by employees of Granite City Steel Co., $26,000 by employees of General Steel Industries, Inc., and a 40% increase in donations from National Lead Co. employees gave a boost to the United Fund campaign at yesterday's second drive report meeting.

But—General campaign Chairman Mitchell B. Miloski noted that even with the "renewed" gifts by the industrial employees, the campaign did not hit the anticipated 50% mark.

Total contributions now amount to $152,066 or 47.4% of the $324,000 goal. Last year at this time, Miloski added, the campaign was at the 63.5% point.

The third report meeting will be a luncheon next Wednesday at the YMCA.

Special plaque award presentations were made to representatives of the three firms and their employees during the drive report meeting.

The plaque for Granite City Steel employees was presented to the campaign leaders, Miloski and Gerhard Ansel, and the "United Fund" girls, Jane Parmley and Robyn Robertson. The 46 employees pledged $1249.

Accepting the plaque for General Steel employees were Raymond Herschbach of the Machinists Union, Clarence Prokes of the Boilermakers, Jewel Tress of the Steelworkers, Alfred Westphal of the Patternmakers Union and Russell Crecelius, plant official.

The plaque for Granite City Steel employees went to August Sacadat of the Steelworkers and Stanley Garst and Melvin McKay, plant officials.

Tribute to Dr. Roman. Special tribute also was given Dr. Leo Roman, chairman of the Professional Division, for being the first section chairman to top his goal.

Dr. Roman was presented with a "little angel" award by Miloski and United Fund Girl Robyn Robertson. The section had a goal of $1100 and obtained pledges totaling $1241, or 112.8%.

Plaques for 100% participation in the campaign were awarded the YMCA and Gebco Machine Co.

The second report meeting showed the Industrial Employees Division with pledges totaling $132,560, or 78% of its goal; Professional Division, $7008, or 73.9% of its goal; Public Services Division, $4332, or 24%; Industrial Division, $31,126, or 20.2%; and Residential and Rural Division, $202, or 8.1%.

Arsonist Sought in Fire This Morning

An arsonist is being sought by Granite City authorities in connection with a fire at the home of Gene Green, Rock road and Denver street, where a jar filled with kerosene was thrown through a rear window at 1:15 a.m. today.

He reported that he was awakened by a crackling noise in the rear room to be on fire. He extinguished it with water. Pieces of glass believed to be from a jar, and a kerosene-soaked wick in it, was among the debris.

City Council Overrides Mayor's Veto Of New Clean Air Law

Board Chairman Plans Meeting Nov. 9 On Revised City Code

The Granite City Air Pollution Control Board has no immediate plan to seek any further amendment of the city's Air Pollution Control ordinance, Mayor Maeras said yesterday.

Bieniacki said that the revision of the ordinance adopted by the council Oct. 2 and confirmed again Monday night when council members overrode Mayor Maeras's veto of the new bill, can be expected "to give us some trouble."

Enrolled in the city's clean air bill as it now stands will be discussed in the regular meeting of the Air Pollution Control Board Nov. 9, he said.

He added that he had no plans for a special meeting to discuss the ordinance, originally regulations as contemplated as a result of the council's successful effort to change the ordinance, originally recommended by the local board.

Exceeded State Law. Bieniacki and other members of the clean air board supported regulations adopted by the council last July. A bill went beyond the scope of Illinois state control standards by including emission and abatement values for pollutants of sulphur content. State controls do not yet include sulphur standards.

Industry objected to the stringency of the law on grounds that it could not be enforced, a contention also supported by Sid S. Sisk, technical secretary of the state control board. Some city council members claimed they had voted for the new bill in July on representations to them that it would make Granite City regulations co-extensive to the state law.

Following several controversial meetings, a majority of the council approved an amendment Oct. 2 which, by reference, made the Granite City bill comparable to the state law. Mayor Maeras vetoed that amendment Monday night but the council overrode the veto Oct. 12 to 7.

Suggested Conference In his veto message, Mayor Maeras suggested a meeting of pollution control officials, council members, industry and all interested parties to re-examine the air pollution picture and enforcement requirements at the local level.

Bieniacki said he has not talked with Mayor Maeras since Monday night's council session and said that he is not aware as to whether or not the mayor will continue to urge a further look at the city's control ordinance.

He said that virtually all business and industries have now submitted letters of intent to the city.

Appointment of two part-time workers, granting of a week's vacation to the city's part-time weed cutter and authorization for a new policeman to go to school were among personnel actions taken by Granite City council members Monday night. Employed as a clerk-typist for the Civil Defense office is Mrs. Emilie Hagopian, 28 Devon Hill Lane, and Bill C. Tilt, 2388 Morgan street, was hired on a 30-day appointment to serve on weekends as assistant humane officer. Mrs. Hagopian is to work a six-hour day, three days a week at the CD headquarters, starting Nov. 1. Council members objected to the naming of an assistant humane officer and Green, who without consultation with the Animal Shelter Board. The objection was an emergency and that he would gladly meet with the board. "If we don't get someone right now," he explained, "there won't be anyone feeding or looking after the animals in the shelter this coming weekend."

Mayor is Invited to Inspect 'Cannonball'

A special invitation was received by the city Monday evening for Mayor Partney to inspect the Washburn Cannonball. The Norfolk & Western Railroad said the St. Louis-Detroit passenger train arrives in Granite City at 10:02 a.m. and at 3:35 p.m. and that the schedule could be delayed momentarily for the mayor to board and inspect the train. The railroad proudly announced that it is operating the finest equipment on the Washburn Cannonball runs and suggested the mayor might even take a ride. The officials hinted the train could be delayed here for the inspection for only a few minutes, since the schedule had to be maintained. Alderman Mosier, a railroader, reminded council members the railroad had unsuccessfully petitioned the Illinois Commerce Commission to drop the Cannonball runs. He encouraged the mayor to make the inspections.

However, it was brought out that the weed cutter works eight to nine months a year and that it has been a past practice to allow vacation pay. Sick leave payments for city employees during September amounted to $788, it was reported to the council. Newly hired police patrolman Francis Chruszt was authorized to attend a two-week, state-sponsored police training school to be held later this month at Southern Illinois University.

Moose Lodge Making Plans For GC Halloween Parade

Whether the community-wide Halloween parade through the downtown Granite City area will take place on Tuesday evening, Oct. 31, still remains in doubt, according to George W. Lipscomb, governor of Granite City Lodge 272, Loyal Order of Moose.

The parade and costume-judging event which annually attracts hundreds of adult and young masqueraders has been co-sponsored for the past few years by Moose Lodge 272 and the Downtown Granite City Shopping Center merchants.

Lipscomb said yesterday that the lodge is prepared to continue co-sponsorship of the Halloween parade, but is waiting a decision from downtown merchants.

"We have tentatively made plans to go ahead with the parade, starting at 7 p.m., Oct. 31, however, a definite decision will be reached early next week," he added.

18,123 Working Here; 12,127 in Durable Goods

With less working in the manufacturing of durable goods than a year ago, Quad-City area employment stands at 18,123, compared to 19,600 on Sept. 15, 1966.

Malcolm A. Thompson, manager of the Illinois State Employment Service in Granite City, reported today that the work force at primary metal industries has decreased from 11,718 a year ago to 10,388. Transportation equipment employment is down from 1381 to 1428 at present.

The 18,123 overall figure listed by 67 major firms here shows a net gain of 632 in the past two months, with government employment dropping 133, primary metals losing 90 and contract construction employees decreasing 38 but transportation equipment increasing by 917, from 512 to 1429.

Stable Outlook
In the immediate future the firms expect relatively stable employment, reaching 18,097 by Nov. 15. Primary metals should begin a slight recovery and food and kindred products should add 76 employees, but federal government workers are likely to decrease by 146.

New Car Wash On Madison Ave. Rejected by City

Three of four recommendations by the City Plan Commission were accepted Monday night by Granite City council members. Rejected was the request for an automatic car wash at 222-24 Madison avenue submitted by Miller-Wolf Realty.

While the car wash is to be located in an area zoned M-1 for light manufacturing and does not require a special use permit, the request was rejected by the city council by a vote of 3-2-1. Prime objector was Alderman Bartosik, who said that while that block of Madison Avenue is an auto service area, there are homes in the immediate vicinity.

There also was letter concerning the request submitted to the city by City Atty. Allen, who noted a householder near a car wash on Namekoff has filed suit because of water flooding his yard. Alderman Parmenter added that debris is often just swept out of cars and blows onto adjacent property in the vicinity of automatic car washes.

Annexation Filed
Approved by the council was a request from HW Development Co. for annexation to the city of four lots in Dream Villa subdivision, Addition 5. The lots are to be zoned R-2 residential instead of the customary R-1. They are located at 234-45-51-52 Zippel avenue. An annexation

Sunset Hill Country Club Starts on New Clubhouse

Sunday duffers are pleased with the start of construction this week on the new $500,000 clubhouse at Sunset Hills Country Club.

It's not that they're too displeased with the present remains of the old fire-wrecked structure, but the new building is to be located on the No. 1 tee—shortening that difficult 455-yard hole by 40 yards.

A groundbreaking ceremony was held Wednesday morning (men's day) for start of construction by Leo Wolf Construction Co. of Granite City.

The new building will be located directly in front of the present structure and will overlook the front nine of the 18-hole course. It will be of contemporary French Provincial design and will be a combination one- and two-story brick structure.

Schedule of work calls for the new clubhouse to be completed by next September, and then the present lounge and the ground level locker rooms will be razed. The original clubhouse, which dated back to the 1920s, was destroyed by fire late in the summer of 1966. Only the ground level locker room and the lounge annex remained.

The south portion of the new clubhouse will be one story with easy access to the golf course from the new locker rooms. The second floor will be for a dining room, dancing, lounge, kitchen facilities and offices.

Taking part in yesterday's ceremony on the first tee were Dr. Henry Malench, club president; Norman Stolze, chairman of the building committee; Leo Wolf, Bernard Keeney, architect; George Gent, plumbing contractor; Lionel Bendel, club manager, and Win Dryden, club pro.

A recommendation also was received from William F. Hoelscher, chairman, stating that the City Plan Commission gives full support to the park district's proposal to get 50% of the $33,000 cost from the federal government for purchase of an 11-acre tract in West Granite.

The tract is along Rock road and financing is sought under the federal Open Space Land Program. Development of the park was approved in August by the city.

The schools will have study centers and will purchase study materials for gifted students.

Job Training
The district will continue its on-the-job training program sponsored by the federal government, Supt. Dragich reported.

Last year, eight persons were hired as clerical and custodial aides. The schools received a partial salary refund from the federal government.

A mathematics workshop for Madison county teachers in being sponsored by the office of the state superintendent of public instruction under the National Defense Education Act at Louis Baer school, it was noted.

The mathematics course started Monday night and will continue for eight weeks for teachers from kindergarten through the eighth grade. James Noth is serving as instructor.

The board agreed to separate its high school study hall and library by moving the study hall to two adjacent classrooms at Madison high school.

Two teachers will move to the new addition of the school. The change was recommended by the state office several years ago.

Improved Study, Library Use
Supt. Dragich said it will permit more advantageous use of both the library and the study hall. Chairs and other equipment are to be purchased.

Employment of Lee E. Ashby, business education administrator under the vocational training program, on a 10-month basis was approved.

Plans were made to attend the annual convention of the Illinois Association of School Boards Nov. 18, 19 and 20 at Chicago. John Beloff was named delegate and President Oel Blumensack alternate delegate. All of the members and board personnel are planning to attend.

Language Arts Expansion in Madison Schools

Language arts for gifted students from the seventh through 12th grades will be offered in Madison schools, it was decided at a school board meeting Tuesday night.

Improvement of the English program was agreed upon to teach gifted students as much as possible, Ray Dragich, superintendent, said.

Reimbursement from the state will help offset the expense, last year, the district received more than $8000 for other programs for top students.

All English teachers will be involved and will receive in-service training. They will offer consultation services and will be eligible to inspect gifted centers in the state, he explained.

The schools will have study centers and will purchase study materials for gifted students.

Job Training
The district will continue its on-the-job training program sponsored by the federal government, Supt. Dragich reported.

Last year, eight persons were hired as clerical and custodial aides. The schools received a partial salary refund from the federal government.

A mathematics workshop for Madison county teachers in being sponsored by the office of the state superintendent of public instruction under the National Defense Education Act at Louis Baer school, it was noted.

The mathematics course started Monday night and will continue for eight weeks for teachers from kindergarten through the eighth grade. James Noth is serving as instructor.

The board agreed to separate its high school study hall and library by moving the study hall to two adjacent classrooms at Madison high school.

Two teachers will move to the new addition of the school. The change was recommended by the state office several years ago.

Improved Study, Library Use
Supt. Dragich said it will permit more advantageous use of both the library and the study hall. Chairs and other equipment are to be purchased.

Schermer Ace Hardware is Building Store at Pontoon

A new Schermer Ace Hardware store now under construction in the 4000 block of Pontoon road, will open on or about March 1 next year, it was announced today.

The new building, located on the south side of the road on property owned and developed by James Green Construction Co., which is planning a complete shopping center at the site, will provide 10,000 square feet of store space and a large paved parking lot.

The masonry building is faced with white brick and has a covered walkway and outside display space on two sides. A Mansard-type roof in front is one of the architectural features.

All new fixtures offering a self-service type hardware store are planned. A service center will be a feature of the store operation.

The new store will be operated by Ben Schermer Hardware, Inc., which now operates two hardware stores in Granite City, one at 1918 Delmar avenue and one at Johnson and Pontoon roads. The present store at Pontoon and Johnson roads will be closed when the new one is opened, it was said.

The firm was founded by Ben Schermer, who came to the Quad-City area in 1902 and opened a retail grocery in Madison, with his brother Herman. Later he moved to Granite City and opened a grocery store at 21st street and Washington avenue with his brothers Manny and Pete Schermer.

In 1924 he left the grocery business and founded the hardware store at 1920 Delmar avenue. That building later was torn down and the business moved into larger quarters.

Upon Mr. Schermer's death in 1952, the business was incorporated as Ben Schermer Hardware, Inc., but for the past five years has been operating under the trade name of Schermer "Ace" Hardware through association with Ace Hardware of Chicago.

Mrs. Ben Schermer now is president of the company. Vice-president and operating head of the company is Ted Berger.

When the new store is opened, it will be managed by Herman Barker who now manages the store at Johnson and Pontoon roads.

Thank You!

With your help, the changes to All Number Calling (ANC) and the new, shorter method of dialing charge calls within the 618 dialing area are going smoothly.

You've probably found by now that changing to all-numeral telephone numbers isn't much of a change at all. With ANC you're dialing the same numbers, simply expressed as seven numerals instead of two letters and five numerals.

And, if you've had occasion to dial a charge call to a telephone within your own 618 dialing area, you've probably discovered the convenience of not dialing the three-digit Area Code number.

Here's a rule-of-thumb for dialing charge calls under the new system. If the Area Code is the same as your own (618), just dial the one-digit Long Distance code plus the telephone number. If the Area Code is different from yours, dial the one-digit Long Distance code, plus the Area Code and telephone number.

If you're in doubt about how to make a charge call, see the front pages of your new telephone directory.

New Rules for 1967-68 High School Basketball

Meetings to discuss 1967-68 basketball rules will be held in widely scattered centers beginning Thursday, Oct. 26. The meetings are sponsored by the Illinois High School Association and are organized for the purpose of acquainting high school coaches and officials with the current basketball code and with rules changes for the coming season.

Seven interpreters, selected from among the state's prominent athletic officials, will conduct the discussions. The IHSAA has schooled these instructors in the various rules problems, and their interpretations will be used by all high school game officials.

Joe E. Frank will speak at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 1, at Edwardsville high school, with Thomas M. Butler Jr. as emcee. Last year, over 2000 athletic officials, coaches and principals attended a similar series of meetings. An increase in attendance is anticipated this year.

All Illinois high schools play under the Official 1967-68 Basketball Rules as adopted by the National Basketball Committee of the United States and Canada, representing such organizations as the NCAA and the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations.

Technical Foul Penalties

Following are the more significant changes in rules for the 1967-68 basketball season:

(1) Mid-court marks indicate the mid-court area as an aid in administering back-of-the-head fouls.

(2) Benches for players shall be placed along that side of the court on which the scorer's and timer's table is located.

(3) The correction of timing errors is authorized when the referee has definite information relative to the time involved.

(4) Technical fouls formerly classified as team fouls have been changed to provide individual penalties for each infraction. This list includes illegal number, each player on the court in excess of five, each addition to squad list made less than 10 minutes before the game starting time, and each change of personnel in the starting lineup made less than three minutes before time of game.

(5) A held ball is to be called any time a player has control of the ball in the mid-court area and is closely guarded for five seconds.

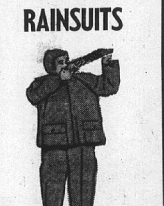

Dunking Banned
(6) Dunking is illegal and is considered as a form of basketball interference.

(7) There has been no change in the interpretation of what determines lack of sufficient action, but the rules change provides that the warning time for inaction is now 10 seconds. (Previously it was 30.)

(8) While the ball is in flight after a try, or is touching the backboard, or is on or in the basket, or in the "cylinder" above the basket, a player shall not cause the opponent's backboard to vibrate (under penalty of a technical foul).

NOVICE AND EXPERIENCED both enjoy roller skating at 4 p.m. each Tuesday in Granite City park district's recreation program held at Stoppokette's roller rink. Holding the beginners' rail is Mariene Reeves, an eight-year-old Emerson third grade student. Skating beside her is Chris Anderson, also eight, a Parkway school third grader.

GC Parks Sponsoring Weekly Roller Rink Sessions for Pupils

Roller skating for youngsters in third through ninth grades is being held every Tuesday at 4 p.m. at Stoppokette's roller rink, 1823 Cleveland blvd., sponsored by the Granite City park district.

The sessions are being held now through March. The price is 25 cents for skates, but there is no admission charge; if a youngster has his own skates, the session is entirely free.

The rink has eating facilities for after-school snacks, serving candy, hot dogs and soda.

The skating area is supervised by a floorman who watches out for the safety of those skating. He will slow down anyone getting too fast, and will halt any "roughhousing."

Those skating in the session must be insured. If the child is in any summer recreation program at the park, he is already insured; if not, he pays $1.

GCCHS Sophs Defeat Mud and Oilers 18-0

Jim Greenwood scored two of the GC touchdowns on eight and five-yard plunges. Frank Mebelick picked up a Wood River fumble and scampered 15 yards for the other score.

Coach Russell Chapell used all 47 players. The Warrior sophomores picked up 245 yards and gave up 101 yards.

High-Scoring Cahokia Poses Toughest Test For MHS Here Friday

Cahokia's Comanches have sufficient press clippings to nail down a victory when they visit Madison high school at 8 p.m. tomorrow, but the football Trojans plan to make them prove their ability where it counts—the playing field.

Undefeated Madison might seem more than a match for twice-beaten Cahokia, until past scores are compared.

Against Triad, the Trojans prevailed 25-6 while the Comanches carried out a 47-0 rout. Against Highland the contrast was even greater. Madison squeaking by 20-15 while Cahokia romped, 68-0.

These Midwestern Conference games gave both teams a 2-0 record, compared to Bethalto's pace-setting 3-4.

In non-league play, Madison has thrashed Breesse Mater Del 33-13 and Western Military Academy 33-12 and edged O'Fallon 14-12. Cahokia opened the season with a scoreless deadlock against Granite City, but a victory being a 20-0 whitewash in 1961. Since then the Comanches have topped MHS five times in successive years, 18-0, 20-0, 47-0 and 41-0 last year.

Last Year in Conference
Dominant in the Midwestern Conference now, aided by its steady enrollment growth, Cahokia will play an independent schedule next year that does not include the Trojans.

In their final season in the league, the Comanches are playing a busy transition schedule of 11 games that includes five non-conference contests.

"This will be the biggest game we have had this year," Trojan Coach Harland Schiebel comments. "They have played better than we have and this is going to make them tougher."

"We've made some changes in our defense to enable us to try to stop their speed, but the changes have not been drastic," Cahokia employs a defensive and wing-T offense.

Visiting Flyers Still Formidable Opponents Despite Three Losses

"The bigger they come, the harder they fall" is a philosophy Granite City high school has followed in recent years regarding physically and numerically larger opponents. The Warriors' football season is a continuation of this attitude could lead to a victory when the two teams clash at CHS at 8 p.m. Friday.

The Warriors have played a "giant killer" role in recent years, dropping a 7-6 decision to the Flyers in 1963, defeating them 16-7 in 1964, bowing 28-6 in 1965 and being outed 14-13 last year. Few schools in this area have had as much success or near-success against East St. Louis, the perennial powerhouse of the Southwest Conference and region.

This might seem an especially good year to run roughshod over the Flyers, who are taking their lumps with unprecidented frequency. However, GCHS has experienced even poorer luck in 1967; a win tomorrow would be its first in six attempts.

Alton, potential heir apparent for the league title, owns a 5-0 record over Granite City and a 26-6 decision over East St. Louis.

Indirect comparative scores also indicate an edge for East St. Louis, which last weekend dropped a 20-7 decision to Edwardsville.

Edwardsville has gained a 29-14 victory over Belleville East, 27-0 conqueror of Granite City. And Edwardsville has won 77 of 78 games, which defeated GCHS 25-7.

The Flyers have beaten Soldan of St. Louis 13-7, led CBC 13-13 and lost to East St. Louis Lincoln 21-8. The Warriors have led Cahokia 9-0 and bowed to Wood River 27-0.

In the 43 meetings between the two schools since 1922, East St. Louis has won 35, GCHS has won seven and three games have ended in ties.

GCHS' offense, stymied so far this season, the Flyers have averaged 160 yards on the council does not want a hearing.

Partney replied, when it was indicative that Bartosiek would be supporting the motion to override the veto that he believed now was the time for the interested groups to meet and "bring in a good law for the city. We have three bad laws."

Support for Mayor
In supporting the mayor's veto, Alderman Fry stated emphatically that air pollution here was a city problem and that the state would not do anything about violations.

"They didn't when we had the paint discoloration. We have an air pollution problem and you know it. It's our problem—not the state's, and the state is not worried about us."

Urban Renewal Rejected 3-to-10 By GC Aldermen
Granite City council members voted 3-to-10 Monday night to reject a resolution authorizing formal application for federal urban renewal funds amounting to $80,000 for planning and surveys in a four-block area.

The resolution had been placed on first reading Oct. 2 and was under fire then, because of the council members' concern over federal intervention on redevelopment of the 24.9 acres, possibly with apartments.

Mayor Partney, urging approval of the resolution, stressed that the city council would have the final word on the types of buildings to be erected. "It's in the vicinity of the hospital and downtown business district, and tentative plans are for additional parking for St. Elizabeth Hospital, downtown parking and commercial development."

In reply to the councilman's concern over displacement of long-time residents, persons on pensions and those who were unable to buy other homes, the mayor said the city would be responsible for relocating the 140 families and 16 individuals, along with 10 businesses, aided with federal funds.

The plan includes the 1000 block of Grand avenue and the west side of the 2000 block; the 2000 block of Madison avenue, the 2000 and 2100 blocks of Iowa street and the 2000 and 2100 blocks of Washington avenue. Of the 87 buildings involved, 71 are classed as substandard, while the others would remain standing.

Overall cost of the program has been set at $1,811,424. Voting for the resolution were Aldermen Fry, Jarrett and Davies. Opposed were Dallas, Moerlein, Bartosiek, Whitmer, Green, Barschik, Nomm, Parkinson, Robertson and Jarrett.

The absent were Boyd, Poulos and Rutledge.

Mayor Partney pointed out the city could further clear away substandard structures by future expansion of the urban renewal program to include the area south of 18th street for light industries.

recognized by the State Department of Public Health (b) which have prescribed by ordinance for the regulation of air pollution, or (c) which integrate their own health department activities into a County Health Department.

"Based upon this Opinion, the Madison county ordinance would not apply to your community. You may be aware, however, that Cook county, based upon an opinion of its State's Attorney, has just amended its county ordinance to be effective within municipalities of the county other than the city of Chicago. The ultimate test of these opinions obviously will rest with the courts.

"We urge you to consider carefully the recommendations of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council prior to finalizing an ordinance for Granite City. These recommendations were based upon the Interstate Study, which recognized that each control agency in the Metro-East area must evaluate the total effect both from practical and economic viewpoints of any or all of its recommendations in relation to the benefits to be gained by their adoption.

"These were the viewpoints which we presented to Mr. Bielecki a few weeks ago in reviewing your proposed ordinance dealing with sulphur compounds.

"It was our opinion that your proposal was not enforceable and that the impact upon the fuel industry created by the proposal was not fully justified.

"We trust this information is helpful to you but do not hesitate to call on us if we may be of further assistance."

GC Council Decides To Pay Bills

Comptroller Robert Stevens and Treasurer E. R. Rich were authorized by the city council Monday night to set up a special account to pay sewer maintenance bills that have been unpaid for at least three months and total $2300.

A suggestion was made by Alderman Noren that the city officers could either redesignate the bills as payable from other city funds or establish a special fund from which to pay them.

They are utility bills for the warning system and electrical bills for the pumps in the sanitary sewer lift stations. The bills will have to be resubmitted to the council after the method of payment is decided upon.

Normally, the bills are paid from the sewer maintenance account—but that account has a deficit, and has had one for the past five or six years. It was about three months ago that Treasurer Rich was advised by an attorney that he could not legally issue checks on an account with a deficit and that to do so would be a violation of a state law. The comptroller has recommended the city transfer surplus money from the sales tax and borrow from the working cash fund to wipe out the sewer maintenance deficit, but the they could be corrected to show that Alderman Robertson's motion passed and not lost, if this body does not feel that Alderman Robertson voting on this issue is not a conflict of interest.

"No Rescinding Action
"In the meeting of Oct. 2, 1967, Alderman Noren made a motion that the Air Pollution Ordinance be placed on final passage as introduced by Alderman Johnson. This was done without making any reference to rescinding (per council has refused. He has noted that the $55,000 deficit actually has been paid from the sales tax reserve and that the sales tax fund bookkeeping figure used on monthly reports is not accurate. Even with the explanation, the council has refused to wipe out the false balance in the sales tax account.

Section 37 of Robert's Rules of Order) or reconsideration (per Page 27 of the Procedures of Illinois City Council).

"Council action must be taken to rescind or reconsider its prior action in requiring that a public hearing be held before the ordinance in question could be put on final passage. The council is still on record requiring a public hearing, as it takes specific council action rescinding that requirement before the ordinance can be put on final passage.

"There is considerable question about the legality of this ordinance. The manner in which it was prepared, the ramifications used in putting it through the council, the deletion of sulphide materials after spending $10,770 of the taxpayer's money to determine the cause and source of air borne pollutants that caused homes to blacken in our Granite City area. "I find it necessary to use the veto powers of the mayor's office to veto Ordinance No. 2503, an ordinance amending Section 7 'Rules and Regulations' and Section 4 'Administration and Enforcement' of Ordinance No. 2236, being the Air Pollution Control Ordinance of the city of Granite City and repealing Ordinance No. 2476.

"There is no doubt that all of these things could be resolved by working together. However, an ordinance of this magnitude, this importance to the community, industry and local residences should not be under any cloud nor should there be any questions as to its validity. If this ordinance became law, any enforcement of it would be jeopardized if it were questioned as to its validity.

"I would like to suggest the Air Pollution Control Board, Industry, and the Board of Aldermen representing the citizens meet and work out a solution to these problems and bring in a good law for all concerned."

Sincerely,
Donald Farney
Mayor of Granite City

Jaycees District Meeting Here Saturday

One of the largest contingents of Jaycees ever to converge on this area is expected to assemble in the local community Saturday afternoon, when Granite City Jaycees host the annual fall meeting of District Eight.

Between 300 and 400 Jaycees and their wives are planning to attend the district event, to be staged in the VFW Hall, 2044 Washington avenue, according to local Jaycee officers.

Participants will represent 32 Jaycee chapters comprising District Eight, whose boundaries extend from Nokomis in the north to Chester in southern Illinois.

Among state and national Jaycee officials expected to attend are Illinois Jaycee President W. E. "Skip" Dunkirk of Bloomington; John Griggs, state Jaycee chairman for the "Keep Illinois Beautiful" program; and National Jaycee Director Lyle Wessell of Belleville.

Other special guests will include Oliver Swalm of the Illinois Youth Commission and Boyd Presley of Granite City, a state vice-president.

State Director Ted Nickeletti and Richard Moore, both members of the Granite City chapter, are in charge of arranging the district meeting and program with Nickeletti to preside at the business session.

Activities will get under way Saturday with a registration and welcoming period from 2 to 5 p.m., followed with dinner from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Featured speaker will be the state Jaycee president whose topic will deal with current status of the Jaycee movement and its future goals.

Following the highlights will be an awards presentation ceremony with Ronald Pennell, a Granite City high school teacher and member of the local Jaycee chapter, to receive the first place District Eight "Speak-Up" award for outstanding performance.

At 7:30 p.m., the ladies will adjourn to the Jaycee Clubhouse, 1855 Poplar street, where entertainment in the form of a fashion show and cosmetic demonstration, will be presented by the Granite City Jayceettes, Mrs. Sandi Peterson, local club president, has announced.

Simultaneously with the women's program, district Jaycee members remaining at the VFW Hall will conduct their regular business meeting. Topics to be discussed at the session include consideration of bids for future District Eight meetings and proposed bids for the 1968 Jaycee National Bowling Tournament.

Other business slated for review include items to be transacted at the Illinois state board meeting, set for the weekend of Oct. 27, 28 and 29, at Champaign. Five local delegates plan to participate in the state meeting. James Jeffries, local president, said today.

Following the fashion show and business session, the two groups will reconvene at the VFW Hall at 9 p.m. for an evening of dancing to the music of "The Invaders."

While a resident here, he was employed as a salesman at Kirchner Hardware store. In earlier years, he had worked in local steel mills. He was a former member of St. John's Baptist Church of North Venice.

Mr. Ingram was preceded in death by his oldest son, Wayne E. Ingram, in 1952, and his youngest son, Lincoln D. Ingram, who was killed in action in World War II.

GC Sewer Bond Sale Bid Call Set Next Week

Legal preparations to call for bids on sale of revenue bonds for construction of sanitary sewers in North Granite and other sections of the city and for the $3,000,000 storm water drainage program for which a $1,500,000 federal fund grant was received.

Bond Atty. Horace Calvo reported to the council that the bid opening tentatively is set for Nov. 15. The sanitary sewers are to be financed with revenue bonds and the drainage sewers with general obligation bonds. The bond issues were approved in a special election in June.

Alderman Bartoski, chairman of the Special Sewer committee, said the construction bid call for the sanitary sewer should be made in the near future, and that final plans for the drainage lines are to be completed by Dec. 15 and will be subject to approval by the federal Housing and Urban Development agency and state Sanitary Water Board.

State and federal agencies already have approved the sanitary sewer line plans.

Two Autos Damaged

Two autos were damaged at 4:55 p.m. Tuesday in a collision at Nameoki road and St. Clair avenue. Police reported the mishap occurred when a car driven by Blake L. Rutland, 2124 Lee street, made a left turn from St. Clair avenue onto Nameoki road and collided with an auto driven by Guy E. Cooper, 3401 Adams street. Rutland was ticketed for violation of a right-of-way control.

City Expecting Court Battle With School Site Annexation

Granite City council members figured they were inviting a court battle Monday night when they adopted an ordinance annexing Maryville school to the city.

The annexation was approved unanimously, and Alderman Norm commented that the city didn't mind going ahead with the annexation, but that if Nameoki township officials take the city to court, the school district should pay the costs.

"We're pulling the school district's chestnuts out of the fire with this annexation," Norm continued. "They want the school in the city limits to get police and fire protection."

Nameoki township officials currently have a suit against the city claiming the annexation of the new Grigby junior high building, under construction at Pontoon Beach, was carried out illegally.

Several aldermen pointed out that a new state law provides for annexation of school sites that are "adjacent to a city." The Maryville road school is connected to the city sanitary sewer line.

With the annexation of the school site, the city expanded another 10.67 acres.

Interact to Help Organize New Groups

The Granite City Interact Club has been appointed a key role in helping to organize similar youth groups in southern Illinois. The assignment recently was announced to James T. Toal, governor of Rotary District 646.

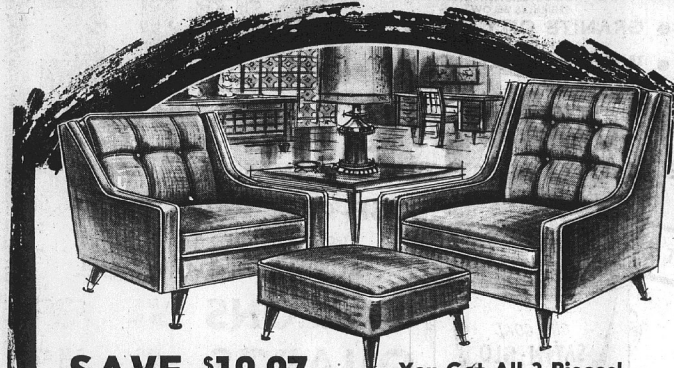

Selection of the local Interact Club as the key group was reported Tuesday to Granite City Rotarians during a weekly luncheon meeting in the YMCA. Club members were told the Granite City youths will be responsible for contacting and encouraging other Rotary clubs to sponsor Interact affiliates in various communities in southern Illinois.

Granite City Rotarians founded the local chapter about three years ago. A total of 45,000 high-school-age youths now belong to Interact International, which was organized in 1952.

Arthur E. Koepfer, club president, conducted Tuesday's meeting and welcomed three guests, Harvey Miller, Madison Rotary president, and Albert Cassens and Robert W. Healy, both of the Edwardsville Rotary Club.

The program centered around youth activities promoted through the YMCA, with Marvin Van Metre, "Y" adult program and membership director, introducing guest speakers, Charles Haase, YMCA youth director and Forrest Cockrell, "Y" physical director.

The latter demonstrated part of a testing procedure now in use at the YMCA through which the pulse rate is measured and reaction to physical exertion determined. Cockrell was assisted in demonstrating the technique by Herbert Pechner. About 50 members attended.

Big Summer Traffic Boosts Bridge Total to 4,990,000

The Venice-owned McKinley Bridge has failed to duplicate its five million traffic volume of 1965-66, but it was a near-miss.

For the 1966-67 fiscal year ending Sept. 30, vehicle crossings reached 4,990,657, or less than 10,000 short of the 5,000,000 level, which has been attained only once.

The figure in the previous year was 5,008,299, a daily average of 13,841 autos, trucks and buses.

Hampered by the opening of the Interstate 270 free bridge Sept. 2, 1966, McKinley began the 1966-67 year with a 6% traffic slump that continued through April of this year.

But a spectacular recovery started in May simultaneously with repair of the Veterans Memorial Bridge connecting East St. Louis and St. Louis.

Work on the bridge deck limited traffic to one lane each way, and mammoth congestion resulted, prompting many motorists to use the McKinley Bridge.

All-time records were smashed in four of the final five months of the fiscal year. By the time the year had ended, the overall decrease from 1965-66 was less than 2%.

Crossings in May 1967 reached 438,132, exceeding the previous high of 437,518 in May 1966.

The volume in June 1967 was 455,432, topping the June 1966 mark of 438,482. July's 443,736 exceeded the previous July's 429,062.

And the September 1967 traffic totaled 441,872, breaking the previous September record of 438,366 set two years ago.

The other summer month also was a busy one for the city-owned span linking Broadway in Venice with Interstate 70 in St. Louis. In August, the 479,891 tally was greater than the previous August's 464,382 but less than the 483,463 count in August 1965 when, not coincidentally, the Veterans Memorial Bridge had another repair project under way.

Although recording huge traffic levels this year, McKinley did not approach the one-week high of 113,661 dating back to Aug. 8-14, 1963.

Statistics for August 1967 were 105,272 in the first week, 108,521 second week, 106,490 third week, 107,538 fourth week and 51,840 last three days.

September 1967 figures were 97,235 for the first week, 106,816 second week, 104,195 third week, 103,204 fourth week and 30,422 final two days.

13,673 Average for Year

Daily average topped 15,000 in June and soared to 15,473 in August, bringing the 1966-67 daily level to 13,673.

How long will the inflated usage continue?

Completion of work on the Veterans Bridge is expected to have an impact soon.

And the opening this fall of the new Interstate 55-70 bridge connecting East St. Louis and Poplar street in St. Louis also is likely to have an effect. It will be a free bridge, and the other East St. Louis area spans probably will reduce their tolls.

As a consequence, the Venice bridge financial outlook appears uncertain. With additional bond requirements to be met, the city may lose the $100,000 it has been receiving annually for operating McKinley Bridge.

200 Area Rail Workers to Get Wage Increases

Approximately 200 shopcraft workers employed in rail yards in the immediate Quad-City area will receive pay hikes under a Congressional mandate that went into effect throughout the nation this week. Pay increases range up to 28 cents an hour.

The wage boosts ordered by a special White House board in the first week of its kind go to members of six shopcraft unions employed by virtually all of the nation's railroads.

Congress created the presidential board in a special law to halt a two-day nationwide rail strike last July and gave the board power to impose the wage terms if there was no voluntary agreement. The law also forbade any further strike until Jan. 1, 1969.

Railroads Drop Appeal

While the railroads dropped consideration of a court appeal, they refused to write the compulsory wage terms into a voluntary court agreement.

The board ordered a 6% wage hike retroactive to Jan. 1 and a second raise of 5% effective next July 1, plus a total of 20 cents per hour for 100,000 skilled workers.

Largest group of workers employed by the Norfolk & Western in the Quad-City area includes about 65 shopcraft employees of the Norfolk & Western at the Madison yards, and about 35 employed by N&W at the nearby Brooklyn yards.

The increase also will go to approximately 50 shopcraft employees of the Gulf, Mobile & Ohio railroad, about 25 workers in the Illinois Terminal Railroad yards in Granite City and three workers at the Chicago & Eastern Illinois yards at Mitchell.

Some Railroads Retractions

The Teamsters Union Association reported it has only one employee definitely assigned in this area, with shopcraft employees assigned out of other points such as East St. Louis and St. Louis.

The first 10 cents of the skill increase go into effect immediately, with five cents retroactive to April 1 and five cents retroactive to Oct. 1. An additional five cents will go into effect next April 1, and the final 10 cents next Oct. 1.

The workers previously had averaged $2.90 per hour, and skilled workers $3.05. The top paid men will get 28.5 cents per hour more immediately under the formula, bringing their pay to $3.33. They will be earning a fraction under $3.00 when the rest of the raises go into effect next year.

Other workers will get varying increases hourly depending on their present scale. Those affected include machinists, electricians, boiler makers, sheet metal workers, oilers, carmen and firemen.

A condemnation suit was filed Tuesday in circuit court at Edwardsville by the city of Granite City against Mae Hogue, 4408 Kirkpatrick Homes, and other interests seeking authority to raze a structure in the Tri-City Park annex.

The complaint alleges that the property has become deteriorated by age, lack of repairs and neglect, creates a serious fire hazard and is dangerous to residents adjacent properties and to the public. REV. PAUL SURBEY
Panel Leader

Rev. Surbey To Lead Panel

Rev. Paul Surbey, S.T.M., pastor of St. John United Church of Christ, will lead a four-member panel on Pastoral Clinical Training at the Clergy Conference on Mental Health, Monday at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus.

In addition to the more than 100 clergy attending the conference, 22 mental health professionals representing 11 different disciplines, will be present to answer questions and give explanations.

Other panel topics and their leaders are as follows: "Problems in Children and Adolescence," Mrs. Anne Wilson, program consultant; "Problems of Alcoholism," Milton Freeman, Ph.D., psychologist; and "Problems of the Family," Donald Taylor, Ph.D., professor, Southern Illinois University.

Further information concerning the conference may be obtained by calling Alton 465-5593, Ext. 368, or 877-4420. Registrations are being accepted in the amount of $5, which includes a luncheon.

H. R. Fischer, president of the First Granite City National Bank, announced that the bank's directors, at their regular meeting Tuesday, declared a stock dividend of 33 1/3% to be payable on Dec. 21 to stockholders of record on Dec. 15. This action is subject to ratification by the stockholders at a special meeting to be held on Nov. 21 and approval by the Comptroller of the Currency.

The dividend will be made possible by the transfer of $200,000 from the undivided profits account to the capital stock account, increasing this to $800,000 and will increase the number of shares outstanding from the present 60,000 to 80,000, Fischer explained. The present par value of $10 per share will remain unchanged.

Detailed information concerning this action will be mailed to all stockholders with the notice of meeting.

"Based upon our present earnings picture," Fischer continued, "are well pleased with its steady growth, especially since our move to our new quarters in February of 1966. Since that time, total assets have increased from $22,000,000 to $44,000,000. We feel that this increase in our capital account will enable us to expand our banking and loan services to the Quad-Cities area and to continue to offer the best in banking facilities to our ever-growing family of customers."

Rand McNally Co., map makers, to find out, but that the answer probably will be that there is no room on the maps of the area. One alderman retorted, "Maryville is on the map."

No Highway Markers
It also was noted that Madison and Venice are not designated on Interstate Highway signs despite frequent requests to the state highway division.

The council ordered installation of a fire hydrant 500 feet east of the intersection of Greenwood street and Kennedy drive.

Approval was given to an Illinois Power Co. application for a highway permit to install a four-inch main on McCambridge avenue near Harris street.

An easement was given to Union Electric Co. to place a transmission line over a city sewer north of the Merchants Bridge. The line with double-circuit steel towers is to extend from the villages of Sauget to Hartford.

Billy Moore, a member of the Madison auxiliary police, was appointed as a special policeman without pay.

Bethel Chapel Dedication Will be Held Sunday

Bethel Chapel Pentecostal Church, formerly located at West 21st street and Dewey avenue, will hold special dedication services Sunday at 2 p.m. at their new church building at West 26th street and Ohio avenue.

Bethel Chapel, which now has a membership of 300, was founded in 1918 by Rev. Ralph Cook, who will be present at the ceremony. He served as pastor of the congregation until his retirement in 1962, at which time the present pastor, Rev. Kenneth Brand, and Mrs. Brand, took charge.

The new building erected by the M. H. Wolfe Co., at a cost of $125,000, is a brick structure with a seating capacity of 500. It includes a full size basement with 17 class rooms and a large assembly room and is fully air conditioned.

The church is situated on a five-acre tract of land purchased from the August Beckmann family and adjoins the Prather school property.

SIU Receives $7.8 Million from U. S.

Southern Illinois University has broken into the "Top 100" listing of schools receiving federal funds for higher education. SIU now ranks 94th, having received $7,815,000 in federal aid during 1966, according to a report published by the National Science Foundation. The bulk of the University's federal funds came from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare — $6,818,000. SIU ranked as the agency's 72nd largest grantee.

In the cast are Nancy Sternberg, Hildegarde; Frank Seron, Mr. Dolson (father); Pat Powers, Mrs. Dolson (mother); Kathy Rodrick, Sally; Dan Monken, Bob; Al Tharp, Jimmy; Prunna Noosh, Paige; Elaine Ward, Ellie May; Pam Peters, Jill; Kurt Koeze, Fred Schermer; and Deborah Smith, Mr. Schermer.

The play, which develops ridiculous and humorous situations, concerns teenagers, dating and desires for independence.

Trick or Treat Limits Rejected By GC Council

Suggested restrictions on "trick or treat" activities in Granite City through adoption of a law was bypassed Monday night by the city council.

A letter from a local housewife pointed out the "nuisance" caused by the early start of "trick or treaters" as much as three and four hours before the practice of carloads of youngsters from out-of-town touring neighborhoods here.

The housewife noted that other cities have restrictions on the annual activities, limiting them to two nights and for youngsters to stay in a five-block area of their own neighborhoods.

Council members placed the letter on file with a comment that local residents can follow their own desires.

Bill List for GC Totals $8481

Routine claims for supplies and services amounting to $8481 were approved by the Granite City council Monday night with only brief discussion of one claim for $66 which is to be checked before it is paid.

Most of the claims were in minor amounts, ranging from a minimum of $1.12 paid to the Illinois Power Co. for metered service at 20th street and the railroad tracks, to $331 paid to the Mississippi Lime Co. for hydrated lime used by the sewage treatment plant.

There were only two exceptions to this range in claim payments. These included approval of a $3172 insurance premium for hospitalization insurance, and payment of $1307 for 4000 gallons of ferric chloride for the sewage treatment plant. These two claims represented more than half of the total amount of bills approved.

The only bill deferred was a claim filed by Navy Brand, Inc., for two dozen nephroids, in the amount of $56. It was held up on request of Alderman Bartosik, chairman of the City Building committee, who said these items customarily are rented. He said he wished to investigate the purchase before approving the claim.

Corn Drying Delay

Because of late planting and cool weather in August, most of the Madison county corn is 7 to 10 days behind the normal drying schedule. Corn didn't reach the 30% moisture level until the first week of October.

We consider 30% corn moisture. Corn that has not reached this point by the first week of October will be difficult to dry.

The corn plant requires 55 to 60 days after pollination to reach maturity. So corn that pollinates in mid-July normally reaches maturity by mid-September. This corn will usually dry to 20%, which is a safe level for ear corn storage.

But corn that doesn't pollinate until August still requires

Side Line Variations Ok'd for 2 Corporations

Two side line variations for construction of carports were approved by the city's Zoning Appeals Board and confirmed Monday night by the city council.

Ogle Smith, 2613 Cayuga street, will be able to build his carport three feet from the lot line; while Robert L. Hudgens, 1534 Garfield avenue, will erect an unattached carport two feet from the lot line.

55 to 60 days to reach maturity. It's likely to be caught by an early frost before it matures. Even if the corn does mature before the first frost, natural drying after that time usually proceeds slowly because air temperatures are low.

High-moisture kernels are soft, delicate and subject to mashing, bruising and tearing. Each bit of damage opens the seed coat for infection by mold-spores and bacteria.

If you plan to store high-moisture corn for feeding to livestock, kernel damage may not be an important consideration in deciding when to start harvesting corn. Damaged kernels and "lines" make acceptable feed, but they limit the time you can safely store corn and maintain its quality.

Grain that you plan to sell or grain that goes to the milling market must be of high quality. To maintain the quality demanded, wait to begin harvesting until your corn reaches 25 or 26% moisture.

Should you dry your corn or take the moisture discount? No one answer fits all farms. But assuming your fixed and operating costs of drying are about average, it's generally profitable to dry corn of more than 19% moisture when the moisture discount is three cents for each percent of moisture.

When the discount is two cents for each percent moisture, it's generally profitable to dry corn of more than 23% moisture. Between 18 and 22% moisture and depending on the local elevator's discount and drying costs, drying is a break-even proposition for most farmers. For more information about moisture discounts ask at the county extension office for a leaflet on "Corn Moisture Discounts and Grain Shrinkage Table."

The faster the speed of corn drying, the higher the cost. Compare the added cost of a fast drying system to possible harvest losses from bad weather.

During a normal harvest season you'll probably lose one bushel per acre for every week of delay. With extremely high yields or severe weather you could lose more.

Here's an often-used "rule of thumb" to evaluate corn drying and storage costs: Operate at maximum capacity, any drying, handling and storage system should cost no more than 85 cents per bushel of corn stored.

Comparisons of per-bushel corn drying costs and on-farm storage costs show that in-storage-layer-drying is the least-cost method for handling less than 12,000 bushels. For handling more than 12,000 bushels the batch-in-bin method tends to cost the least.

The portable batch and continuous flow drying systems are reasonably competitive for handling more than 30,000 bushels. The choice of a drying system depends on whether the farm is tenant or owner operated, the capacity needed to complete harvest within the available time and the available labor and capital.

NIGHT
VISION

U. S. Army Depot Photo

JEEP-MOUNTED NIGHT VISION searchlight and a pictorial presentation of the Granite City Army Depot's night vision project is on display at the 13th annual meeting of the Association of the U. S. Army in Washington, D. C. The local depot has the responsibility of assembling, testing and repairing the equipment that enables soldiers to fight, observe, move and work at night with efficiencies approaching daylight capabilities while maintaining maximum possible security.

Police Chief Cautions Motorists During Winter

There is no such thing as leg-islating "instant safety" on streets and highways, according to Granite City Police Chief Ronald J. Veizer.

"The new federal safety regulations which establish vehicle standards and call for greatly expanded safety programs at the state, county and local levels are certain to bring improvement in the death rate, but it won't come soon," the chief said.

"And there are other grim factors at work which convince me that things are going to get a lot worse on our streets and highways before they get better.

Among factors listed by the chief which will make it more hazardous on the highways are more young drivers, higher speeds, popularity of motorcycles, increasing travel, alcohol consumption and failure to use seat belts.

High Death Toll

All of these elements at work in our traffic stream are ac-

most certain to push our death toll upward in the years immediately ahead, Chief Veizer said.

"We are approaching the critical winter months when normal driving hazards are compounded by the weather. Reduced visibility and inadequate traction make it tougher for drivers to stay out of trouble."

He urged motorists to study the following tips for safe winter driving which have been advocated by the National Safety Council's committee on winter driving hazards and endorsed by the International Association of Chiefs of Police:

Get the "feel" of the road by accelerating carefully to see if wheels spin; or brake gently to see if they skid. Reduce speed accordingly.

Increase Distance

Increase your following distance. It takes three to nine times as far to stop on snow and ice as on dry pavement.

"Pump" your brakes to slow or stop—don't jam them on. An intermittent pumping action keeps the wheels rolling and helps maintain steering control. Have good tires with good treads. Better yet, use snow tires which provide half again as much pulling power in snow as regular tires. Studded snow tires offer still more help on icy surfaces.

Always carry reinforced tire chains in the trunk of your car for use during severe snow and ice conditions. They provide four to five times as much traction on snow or ice as regular tires.

Keep your windshield and windows clear at all times. Replace streaking wiper blades gone dead from exposure to sun, wind and oily road film. Be sure that your windshield washer solution contains adequate anti-freeze.

"These are practical, down-to-earth recommendations," Chief Veizer said. "I urge every motorist to heed them."

Apple-Tizing Treats

Glowing red, glistening green and glittering yellow... these are colors that mark the season of autumn; colors that lend natural decoration to any fall scene. And Midwest fruit counters are especially fashionable in an array of abundant red and yellow apples for consumer delight!

Prospects are for a somewhat smaller crop in the central states, but October is the principal apple harvest month and supplies should be plentiful.

The Consumer and Marketing Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture introduces you to these appealing ideas

Apple-Tizers: Cut apples into wedges and core. Sprinkle with citrus or pineapple juice to retard browning. Arrange and use with Slimmer Dip: Blend 1 pound cottage cheese, 1 tsp. horseradish, 1 pkg. dried onion soup, and dash of Worcestershire sauce. Add skim milk for smoothness. Apple-tizers are low-calorie, too!

Apple Hot Breads: Fold in grated apples to muffin, grid-iron cake, or waffle batter. Serve with creamy honey-butter.

Applewiches: Core apples and cut thick rounds, leaving the colorful peel on. Sprinkle with citrus juice. On one slice spread soft sharp cheese, cream cheese with jam or nuts, peanut butter and mayonnaise, sliced ham, chicken, or turkey. Place a second apple round on top. Arrange on platter.

Yes, there's always time to enjoy apples in any shape or form. How about right now?

Consumer Tips

Sometimes bruised and damaged apples are sold at bargain prices. Consider how you'll use them before buying. Baked apples and apple salads call for the most attractive apples, while apples with superficial blemishes may be used for sauce, butter, jelly, and cider.

Spring Flowering Bulbs

All the garden stores are well stocked with the newest varieties of tulips, daffodils and other spring flowering bulbs.

A new planting will always give you the high quality so famous for these plants. But old plantings can do it too. Three year old plantings often produce even better show because the bulbs have split and produced two or three flowers. This continued beauty usually means good care, and an ideal planting location. Excellent drainage and full sun are the main requirements. The third part is good care. Do not remove the leaves until the foliage begins to ripen. At least a month after bloom.

If you are planning a new planting and wish the mass color effect, then plan on planting tulips six inches apart and narcissus eight inches apart for best effect. If you have a large area in mind, plant them in clumps. A few bulbs scattered over a large area will not give you a mass color effect.

Salvage Summer Favorites
Fall florists will soon destroy your beautiful geraniums. But you can save one of each for next year's garden.

One method is keeping a single plant of each color as a potted plant in a porch or spare bedroom. Some pruning will be necessary when you move it indoors to prevent severe wilting. In early January, begin to start cuttings in separate pots.

Another method is simply to gather a few cuttings and when Mrs. Maude Trivillian of Elshar root you can start more cuttings in January.

Whether you select the mother plant method, or the cuttings, grow them in a bright location. Full sun is the best. Even sunburn better than too little sunlight. Cold temperatures are more desirable than very warm locations. A cool porch or bedroom is ideal.

Cuttings will not root in water but often thrive in a soil and peat combination. Good aeration and drainage are the important soil factors. Always bake the soil you use for cuttings. Place moist soil, and the pots in your oven for one and a half hours at 250°. This will destroy weeds, nematodes and disease organisms. You can use the soil as soon as it cools. Do not add fertilizer or use manure in your soil mixture.

Control Chickweed Now

Smooth chickweed seems like a springtime weed, but October is the ideal time to destroy it.

This lawn pest has started to grow in many spots in your lawn. During the winter it thrives when all else is dormant. By spring, the clumps of light green weeds seem everywhere. Did you have any?

If you see a scattering of chickweed seedlings in thin areas of your turf, you can easily control smooth chickweed as well as ground ivy and clover with MCPP and Dicamba. Recent research shows either of these seem to work better than the old standby, Silvex. Either of these favored weed killers should provide complete control, unless new seedlings start after the treatment.

Parents are Appreciative Of 'Yule Mail Call' List

Two Madison soldiers — one stationed with a signal battalion at Phu Lam who volunteered to return to Vietnam for a further six-month period after already serving 12 months overseas — and the other who will spend his next two Christmases away from home in Anchorage, Alaska — are among the local servicemen appearing in today's "Yule Mail Call" list.

Again this year, the Press-Record is publishing the names and addresses of Quad-City military personnel, serving at home and overseas, hoping that local residents, clubs or church organizations will send Christmas greetings via letters, or packages to the servicemen or women of their choice.

Included on today's list is Specialist Fourth Class Harry E. Clark Jr., 21, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clark Sr., reside at 1731 Market street, Madison. Recently, the soldier volunteered to serve in Vietnam for an additional six months over the usual required 12-month period.

Specialist Clark, who spent a 30-day leave at home late this past summer, is expected to remain overseas until next March. Presently, he is stationed at Phu Lam with a Signal Battalion of the U. S. Army Strategic Command.

He enlisted in the service 18 months ago, after attending classes at Southern Illinois University-Carbondale and the SIU-SW campuses. He is a graduate of Assumption high school, East St. Louis.

Mrs. Marie Dunnivant, 2009 Troy street, Madison, wrote the "Yule Mail Call" submitting her son's name, Pfc Larry E. Dunnivant, and expressed appreciation for the pre-Christmas service.

"I think your newspaper is doing a very nice thing for the boys in service," Mrs. Dunnivant wrote. "My son has been stationed in Anchorage, Alaska, for almost a year and he won't be able to come home this Christmas or next."

To submit a serviceman or woman's name and address to the "Yule Mail Call," Quad-Cityans are asked to send or bring the correct information to the Press-Record office, 1815 Delmar avenue.

To ensure proper delivery, the servicemen's name, rank, serial number, correct address, with APO or FPO when applicable, should be included. If designated by the sender, the serviceman's area of duty will be noted in parenthesis following the address.

Woman Cut on Face
Police were called to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 2 p.m. Monday when Shelly Ford, 3811 Kirkpatrick Homes, was being treated for a two-inch laceration on her face. They were told that the woman was assaulted by a girl, 17, who wielded a pocket knife in another unit of the housing project. No charges were filed.

Pvt. Reeves Completes Administration Course

Instruction also was given in fundamentals of the Army filing system, typing and operation of office machines. The serviceman's father, Joseph W. Reeves, lives at 2716 Denver avenue.

Bruce Provence Now Army Combat Engineer
Army Pvt. Bruce W. Provence, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Provence, 2513 Benton avenue, has completed advance training as a combat engineer at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

During the eight weeks of training, he received instruction in combat squad tactics, use of infantry weapons and engineer reconnaissance. Techniques of road and bridge building, camouflage and demolitions also was taught in the course.

State Ready to Plan Air Sulphur Values

Plans for development of alert levels for sulphur dioxide concentrations have been outlined to the Illinois State Air Pollution Control Board by its technical advisory committee. The committee pointed out that the most urgent needs in Illinois are to prevent episodes of exceptionally high levels of sulphur pollutants such as have occurred in some areas of the country and to define atmospheric concentrations of sulphur compounds that are biologically acceptable.

Glenn W. Klassen is technical secretary of the Illinois Air Pollution board.

PTA Plans Drive Against Lighting First Cigaret

A special PTA project to discourage smoking by seventh and eighth grade pupils by convincing them that "it isn't the smart thing to do," will be conducted throughout PTA district 29—Madison, Jersey and Calhoun counties—as part of a state-wide program.

The campaign will be launched at the District 29 Fall Conference, Oct. 26 at the East Alton junior high school, according to Mrs. Thomas Holland, director of the district 29 PTA. Mrs. Holland said she is urging every local PTA unit to participate in the drive to aid parents of teenagers to discourage the beginning of the smoking habit by children.

Councils and districts will assist the state PTA in supplying information and leadership. Every unit has received a special packet of materials on the project, containing suggestions and ideas on how best to contact the 10,000 seventh and eighth grade children of District 29 to supply them with health information in the matter of smoking.

Every child will be furnished with a copy of "His First Cigaret—A Matter of Life or Death," prepared by the National PTA for the program. Suggestions for special health programs, films, publications and lists of speakers will be supplied to local unit representatives attending the Fall Conference at East Alton.

Mrs. Holland will be assisted in the campaign by Mrs. Robert Harris, East Alton, district chairman on smoking and a health.

Mrs. Emet J. Newman of Chicago, Illinois chairman, said the program is an educational one for parents on the dangers of cigarette smoking to the future health of their children and is in no way "an invasion of the privacy of the parents."

Park District Plans 1st 'Ice Follies' Trip

Granite City park district will sponsor a special two-day excursion to the Thursday, Nov. 9, performance of "Ice Follies of 1968" at the St. Louis Arena. Harold Brown, GC park superintendent, said today that 90 reserved seats are available, at the present time, at reduced cost.

Reservations may be made by calling the Wilson Park office at 878-3069, with tickets to be picked up at the office prior to Monday, Oct. 30. Total cost per person will be $3.75, including admission ticket to the Arena circle and round-trip transportation.

Ice skating starts from seven countries will display their artistic skills in the new Ice Follies production, with headline performers from the United States, Canada, England, Scotland, Czechoslovakia, West Germany and Switzerland.

Among the featured skaters are 1962 World Champion Donald Jackson of Oshawa, Ont., Canada, whose record for the highest scores ever achieved in competition still remains intact, and former Canadian and North American Ice Dance Champion, Ken and Paulette Ormsby of Toronto, who will interpret varied musical tempos and rhythms with smooth, sophisticated ease.

Other top skaters spotlighted in the all-new Ice Follies, include Mr. Ice Ambassador, Richard Dwyer of Hollywood; 1965 German Champion Uchi Kessler of Frankfurt, who is also a popular singer; Buddy Zack of Chicago, a brilliant newcomer who holds four gold medals; and a Warner (Mr. Frick) Groebel of Basel, Switzerland, who returns for a record 22nd year with his inimitable stunts and antics.

"Gorgeous costumes, pretty girls and flawless performances makes the 'Ice Follies' a most unforgettable experience," the park official said, pointing out the Nov. 9 trip is the first to be made to an Ice Follies show.

State Tax Clinic Set for Oct. 30 At Springfield

State Rep. Ralph T. Smith of Alton, speaker of the Illinois House, and Eugene Berghoff of Bethalto, local government aide, Springfield office, Illinois Department of Revenue, have been named to the panel of experts for the 10th biennial tax clinic to be held Oct. 30 at Springfield by the Taxpayers Federation of Illinois.

The clinic was called to discuss and answer questions on state and property tax changes made by the General Assembly.

Smith, Berghoff and other experts in the tax field will interpret changes for the county, township, municipal officials, businessmen and others in attendance from throughout the state.

Serving his seventh term in the House, Smith, a former Granite Cityan, is chairman of the House rules committee and served as majority whip in the 73rd session. Engaged in the general practice of law, he is active in many civic, fraternal and veteran organizations.

Berghoff is a former township auditor, chief deputy sheriff and circuit clerk and joined the Department of Revenue in April, 1961. He is a member of the Illinois Assessors Association and International Association of Assessing Officers and is active in many civic, fraternal and veteran groups.

Formerly with the Alton school system, he is an honorary member of the Illinois Association of Supervisors of Assessments.

The public is invited to the sessions beginning at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. in the Leland Motor Hotel. A luncheon will be held between the sessions and the meeting will adjourn at 3:30 p.m.

MAN-MADE ROCKS covered with moss ivy and flowers, constructed at Central Christian Church here, are being used to form the worship setting at a Kiel Auditorium committee room into a prayer chapel during the 118th anniversary of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) this week. Merrill L. Caldwell of Indianapolis (standing) assisted in the dedication service.

Civil Service Retirees Invited To Hear Harris

Retired Federal Civil Service employees residing in the Quad-City area, together with their wives or husbands, are invited to meet with Sidney M. Harris, Field Officer of the National Association of Retired Civil Employees at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 25, in the local YMCA.

Harris, a resident of Belleville and past president of the Illinois Federation of Retired Civil Employee Chapters, will discuss the topic, "The Plight of Retirees and What Can Be Done About It."

Interest shown by local retirees attending Wednesday's meeting may result in a chapter being formed within the four-community area, Harris said. Refreshments will be served following the program.

The national association official noted that approximately 100 federal service retirees reside in Granite City, with more than 25,000 located throughout Illinois. State-wide, federal retirees receive a total of $4,037,354 each month in retirement benefits, he said.

Harris pointed out that Illinois ranks ninth among all states in the number of retired federal employees, with California heading the list with over 75,000 and Alaska having the fewest, with less than 1000 federal retirees.

Sesquicentennial Plans Told at County Meeting

Mrs. V. H. Mindrup of Edwardsville was elected president of the Madison County Historical Society at its annual fall meeting this week at Edwardsville. She succeeds Mrs. Austin Lewis of Madison.

Others elected were Robert C. Lange of Edwardsville, first vice-president; Elmer Hart of Hartford, second vice-president; Mrs. Ruby Harris of Fosterburg, secretary; and Miss Charlotte Stamper of Alton, treasurer.

Principal speaker was Larry Wollan, assistant director of the Illinois Sesquicentennial Commission in Springfield, who discussed plans for the 150th anniversary which will be observed Dec. 3, 1867, to Dec. 3, 1868.

For local activities during the year, he suggested:

An antique auction, a week-long antique show and art show, a tour of historical points of interest, a pageant to be presented by an amateur theater group; a permanent float to be in parades, chosen from a float competition; a golf tournament, grade school poster contest, special religious services April 19, 20 and 21, tents by women's clubs on kickoff day, Dec. 3.

Tours of the Granite City Army Depot, a flour mill and locks at Alton and Southern Illinois University Southwestern Camps; place mats with historical spots to be distributed by county restaurants, newspaper accounts of historical interests, various homecomings, and a reception or ball at the county museum to climax a week-long open house.

Wollan also reported that a special supplement on Illinois history will be included in an issue of Fortune magazine and a special 45-minute television show will feature Jack Benny, Bob Hope and others.

Financial Squeeze on Farmers

By U.S. SENATOR CHARLES H. McNICHOLS

The farmer of the United States is faced with a crisis. That crisis has been brought about through over-increasing government participation in the affairs of the farmer, his markets, his production, his crops and his prices.

We know the U.S. farmer is the world's most efficient. We know he is the world's largest exporter of agricultural products.

We know that farming is the nation's largest industry, with six million workers, 34 million producers, and an annual budget for goods and services of over $30 billion.

Yet we also know that in 1966 the farmer received 25% less for his products than he did 19 years ago; that in the early 1960s to 1966 to April 1967, agricultural prices suffered their sharpest decline since the early 1930s; that farm prices relative to the rest of the economy are at their lowest level in 33 years; that while national income during the last 20 years has increased 21%, farm income is down 13%.

The only thing that has gone up for the farmer is the cost of doing business. No wonder one U.S. senator recently submitted his own quite simple agricultural program—partly in jest, but with serious overtones—bill to prohibit the number of Department of Agriculture employees from outnumbering the farmers.

The number of farms is diminishing at the rate of 100,000 a year. Since 1960, farm population has decreased by 4,155,000 people.

These are not simply cold statistics. Every one of them has a deep and distressing significance to the farmer.

The farmer has carried too much of the burden of the nation's economic problems. We know first-hand. The Illinois farm Lorraine owns that has been in the family for over 100 years provides, year after year, the lowest rate of return on investment value of any investment we have ever seen.

The federal government must accept a good share of the blame for the farmer's situation today. The farmer and all who believe in fair play now look to the federal government to provide a good share of the necessary action. We cannot say how the problem of the American farmer will be solved. Surely we all know there is no easy solution. But the time to do something is long past due.

We should take immediate steps to assist the farmer in locating consumer markets and begin to gradually be designed to facilitate orderly marketing of farm products.

The federal government must begin to gradually be designed to facilitate orderly marketing of farm products.

This nation has been built upon the farm. The farm is the backbone of the nation's economy. It is the source of our food, our fiber, and our fuel.

Party Pendulum Keeps Hope Alive

For Outnumbered, Outfanned GOP

If the Republican party has begun to feel a bit like General Custer's troops, it isn't surprising. "Mr. GOP" in Washington, Sen. Dirksen, attracted a substantial audience of 525 here at $6 a plate. But Madison county Democrats, the party of the "poor," three nights later assembled 600 for dinner at $25 a head, and without a speaker.

Nationally, it is the Democrats who now receive the bulk of the large political campaign gifts.

And polls indicate that, for the first time, Republican has dropped out of the No. 2 position. A newly completed series of nationwide survey shows that of every 100 adults, 42 describe themselves as Democrats, 31 as independents and 27 as Republicans.

In other words, even if the Republican ticket is supported by all of its party members, a united Democratic front would make it necessary for the GOP to win over 23 out of each 31 independent voters in order to have a chance of victory. And not all independents are really uncommitted, although their ranks do show the fastest growth rate, especially among younger voters.

Principal consolation for the "Grand Old Party" now are the general discomfiture with presidential politics as the 1968 election approaches, and knowledge that the political pendulum is prone to swing in both directions.

The stronger one party becomes, the more it has to shoulder responsibility for whatever parts of our system don't happen to be functioning well. This then prompts greater support for the opposition, keeping our two-party system alive.

Only when government can change its leadership peacefully does freedom have much chance of surviving the transition. It has been a long night for the GOP since the stock market and party suffered the biggest fall since Humpty Dumpty nearly four decades ago. But, fortunately for both Democrats and Republicans, the Republican popularity plunge was not fatal.

Get Your Ice Skates Ready

Have you swapped or bought your skates yet?

The opening of the Granite City park district ice skating rink in the beautiful new recreation center at 29th street midway between Benton and State streets is fast approaching—Friday, Oct. 27.

For those who plan to skate only infrequently, skates will be available on a rental basis. But whether on rented or purchased skates, on racing or figure skating blades, a large turnout is being expected. It will be a gala occasion, inaugurating festive and active winter recreation seasons for thousands of local families.

Building Trends Backing the United Fund

The Oct. 27 contributions by construction and building trades will be an excellent addition to the current United Fund drive.

The United Fund has been active in the past, but the concentrated activity this year may make it more convenient for them. The strong backing by business representatives and towards the United Fund is a recognition of the importance of U.F.-financed services to all Quad-City area residents and workers.

Use of Technology Will Help Reduce Differences in Quality of Schools

(Sixth of seven reports by the U. S. Office of Education tracing the history of education in the United States, and discussing the future outlook.)

What forces will shape the American school and college in the decades to come, and how will those institutions of tomorrow differ from those of today?

Of many answers, the most common is that the confronted American education in 1967, many observers felt was a state of confusion, school segregation and the disparities in educational quality from area to area.

To these problems—legacies of old injustice and old apathy—were added a new phenomenon: the use of technology for educational purposes.

Combination of Trends It is likely that these three forces, in combination with the steady change of the society which both molds the schools and is altered by them, will affect education for many years.

Majority and minority cities in the North and to live in the different parts of the community. Hence, desegregating schools outside the South is as much a

Slumping Stock Values Discussed

By THOMAS E. O'HARA, Chairman, National Association of Investment Clubs

Q. What do you think of paper companies as an investment? I've owned shares in several for the last 10 years and they have not done well.

A. The paper industry developed extensive over-capacity in the 1950s and, while the industry has been growing steadily, firms cut prices rather than production.

This meant that, while basically this was a good, growing industry, it had poor financial results. Therefore, paper and pulp stocks have not been a rewarding investment in recent years.

There is still some tendency on the part of paper firms to increase their capacity, but there is a better control of production and prices. If this trend continues, the industry should show better earnings in the future.

Right now paper firm stocks are selling at much more favorable prices than in the past. No date can be guaranteed when prices will get better, but I would say that the odds are in favor of improvement.

Q. The company for which I have a stock purchase plan, I have been having $31 a month (the maximum allowed) taken out of my pay each month to buy shares. The company adds 15% to my purchase.

The stock hasn't been doing too well for some months now. Should I sell the stock and put the money into a savings account?

A. I'd wait a while. The stock is first placed with the company making you a present of 15% of your purchase, you have lost a cent of your own investment until the price has dropped 15% from what you paid for it. Where else can you get a 15% gift right at the start?

In the second place, I'd wait also because the stock is being sold in a slump apparently for less than a year. You may rest assured that management is considering the stock and is trying to work out the problem.

Unanimity Required for Conviction

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Associations)

A person accused of a crime who is brought to a jury trial in such trial he may be convicted only by the unanimous vote of the 12 jurors.

A defendant's right to a jury trial in criminal cases is embodied in the constitutions of the United States and of the State of Illinois. The requirement that all 12 jurors must agree to a verdict of guilt or innocence is a matter of common law.

The constitution of Illinois provides that citizens of this state have the right to a jury trial "as heretofore enjoyed." Thus, the state constitution provides that citizens have the right to a jury trial as it existed at Common Law at the time of the adoption of the state constitution.

English Common Law required the unanimous consent of 12 jurors to convict or acquit a defendant of a crime. So it is to this day.

Majority Vote Proposed Today, there is a movement in England to do away with the unanimous jury verdict in criminal cases in favor of a majority decision.

England may do this, since it has no written constitution. However, the idea of a majority verdict is not new.

According to the Bureau of the Census, the white population in central cities increased only 2.5% whereas the Negro population there rose 24.4%.

No Simple Answers Many observers question whether the Negro population, no matter how highly motivated, are today in a position to make large, immediate inroads on the segregation of Negroes in cities and of white in suburbs.

I'd give them a chance. They've had a pretty good record of solving their problems in the past.

Still a third reason for hanging on to the stock is that the savings accounts have no chance of appreciation to offset the effects of inflation, which has eaten away at the value of the stock.

Q. My mother's estate was settled recently and I'm to receive $2500. Since I don't know too much about picking good investments, wouldn't I be better off to buy shares in eight or ten companies, so as to be sure of getting one or two good ones, rather than buying only one or two and having them all turn out badly?

A. No, I don't think so. In the first place, studying eight or ten stocks thoroughly enough to be sure you were making a good buy would be a tough job.

With that sum of money, I think you would be better off to invest your investment among just three different companies.

Since you're young and have a long-term investment plan, I suggest that you select a good insurance company, a good bank and a good stock.

Insurance is an excellent growth industry. It is unpopular at the moment and many stocks are available at bargain prices.

Banks and utilities, too, have good basic growth and are in a favorable buying range.

Have you a question about investing? Mr. O'Hara, editor of the monthly magazine, "Better Investing," will assist you as far as possible in his column or by personal mail, but must limit questions to those of general interest.

Correspondents will receive a free copy of "Better Investing." Write to T. E. O'Hara, National Association of Investment Clubs, Dept. S, Box 1060, Detroit, Mich. 48231.

Also, the fact that all jurors must agree places an individual obligation on each juror to weigh the testimony and other evidence, to voice his own arguments during deliberation, to listen to the arguments of all, and to make up his own mind.

At the same time, there is a verdict, a mistrial results and the prosecution must decide, on the basis of the evidence, whether to seek a new trial or move for dismissal of the charge.

Even if the system may not be perfect, in many cases the refusal of a single juror to be convinced against the majority has prevented an irreparable miscarriage of justice.

state and local level can more competently judge educational assets and needs, and tailor programs to fit them.

At the same time, there will be an increasing emphasis on regional enterprises to meet region-wide problems.

While the federal government has drawn some criticism since the 1930s for its increasingly vigorous moves into public welfare, it seems also to have brought about in the majority of Americans an agreement that welfare is a legitimate and necessary concern of government at every level—that it cannot wholly be left to private charity and local luck.

The states will quite probably take advantage of this public mandate to enlarge the scope of their operations rather than losing the initiative by default.

Some hesitations will remain. Yet there is no shorter-term cure for the economic ills than the various states.

As long as some states will always have proportionately more tax money to allocate to public purposes than others.

Mrs. Ellsworth Gross, head of the Illinois Federation of Women's division, will speak on "Women's Role in the Present Crisis" at a joint meeting of city, village and rural school teachers Oct. 31, Madison County Supt. Hugh McGee has announced.

Local Elks will dedicate their new $40,000 lodge building, erected by B. H. Grider, No. 16. Because of the war, it has been decided not to hold the big indoor ice skating rink originally planned for the dedication. Instead, the same number of volunteers will devote an equal amount of time to aiding the Red Cross and selling Liberty Bonds.

Niedringhaus trustees and heirs have decided to pay the remaining debt on the Niedringhaus Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, which is named after William H. Niedringhaus, one of the founders of Granite City. He previously provided the pipe organ. The congregation will retire the parsonage debt.

City Fund Balances 1/2 Million Behind '66

After five months operation during its current fiscal year that began May 1, Granite City is running almost a half-million dollars behind the same period of last year in balances of its municipal fund accounts, a compilation of city finance reports showed today.

During the same period the city has spent more out of its general fund than it did during the same five months of 1966, despite urgent pleas of city officials for economy to keep municipal spending within the 1967-68 budget.

The city's general fund, as of Oct. 1, had a greater balance than it did the same time a year ago, according to a report to the city council Monday night by Comptroller Robert Stevens, but total monies remaining in all of the city's 26 other separate accounts total only $562,344.

This total is $530,743 less than the $1,102,087 overall balance in the separate accounts on Oct. 1, 1966.

General Fund Higher

Stevens report showed an Oct. 1 balance of $462,929 in the general fund, or $42,453 more than the $420,476 balance on hand at the same time last year.

At the same time, spending out of the general fund totals $562,211 for the five months operation this year, compared to $61,993 for the same period of 1966.

The higher balance in the general fund this year despite higher expenditures during the same period results from transfers to general fund accounts of $133,000, giving the general fund total available monies of $1,045,140 for the five-month period this year.

These transfers, primarily from the sales tax fund, were in addition to $842,171 in taxes and other revenue, and $69,989 in general fund account balances that were on hand at the beginning of the fiscal year.

No Transfer Last Year

During the five-month period last year, however, no transfers were made and the general fund included only its regular receipts of $778,078 and $104,383 in balances on hand when the fiscal year began, for total available revenue of $882,460. Thus, the city this year has had $62,690 more in available revenue than it had at the same time last year.

The $42,453 excess in this year's Oct. 1 general fund balance over that of last year, partially offsets the decrease of $539,743 in the total balance of the separate accounts, bringing the actual decrease to $497,290. The decline in available funds of the city's separate fund accounts is due primarily to depletion of the sales tax fund which was transferred in part to general fund accounts to wipe out deficits and provide operating expenses until 1966 taxes were collected during the summer.

Reserve Fund Cut

Reported fund balances on Oct. 1 last year showed a total of $478,309 in the sales tax fund.

Following transfer this year, the current balance is $37,523. This reduces the city's reserve fund to a considerable extent, since the sales tax revenue could be used to bolster any account for which there was insufficient operating capital.

The report by Stevens to city council members Monday night shows that as of Oct. 1 this year the balance in the general fund of $462,929 and the balance of $562,344 in all other separate funds, gives the city a current aggregate balance of $1,025,274.

The same figures on Oct. 1 a year ago showed the general fund balance of $420,476 and the aggregate balance of $1,102,087 in all other accounts, for an overall balance of $1,522,564.

Auto Runs off Bridge

Onto Railroad Trestle

A car driven by Clifton Otis Armstrong of Little Rock, Ark., missed the turn of the McKinley Bridge roadway at the Illinois Terminal Railroad highline about 7 a.m. Tuesday and skidded onto the railroad tracks. The car had to be towed off the tracks. Armstrong was uninjured and the car was undamaged.

Two young women were killed and three men injured at the same point Sept. 30 when their car ran onto the trestle and fell 40 feet to the roadway below.

Four Road Arrests

Four drivers were charged with speeding Monday afternoon as traffic division police operated a radar unit at Nameoki road and Lindell Blvd. They are Delmar A. Denson, Brighton; Harold M. Bauer, Edwardsville; Wayne H. Peterson, 4115 Melrose avenue; and Drewella Coleman, 2812 Pershing Blvd.

Reading Workshops for Teachers Announced

Mrs. Ruth Lehr, 330 Lenox avenue, Mitchell, director of the Project Liftoff reading, counseling and pre-school program in the Granite City school district, will conduct a reading workshop beginning Tuesday, Oct. 24, for teachers of kindergarten and the first through twelfth grades.

She will be the instructor for a group meeting from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. each Tuesday for five weeks at Triad high school, Route 40 east of Troy.

Donald Moore of Alton will lead a similar workshop starting Thursday, Oct. 26, at the Mark Twain school, 907 Milton road, Alton. Hours and length of the course will be the same.

R. J. Trimpie said this work that the reading workshops were planned because there has been such a demand for them. "Each group will be limited to the first 30 who enroll so that the class size will be such that the material will be meaningful to all who attend."

"If our students are to become adequate readers, it is imperative that each teacher assume the responsibility of being a reading teacher," Supt. Trimpie commented.

"This reflects the present-day philosophy under which educators are uniting their efforts toward the ultimate goal—to help the child become an adequate reader now and help him develop a lasting interest in and appreciation for the printed page."

"Most reading disability could be prevented if teaching methods were better adapted to the unique needs of each student. This conclusion—that adapting instruction to the child's needs will result in better readers—is the underlying philosophy of the reading workshops. They carry no college credit, but a certificate will be awarded for completion."

18th-Madison Accident

Autos driven by Ruby Westbrook, 2432 Logan street, and Harriett Allen, 1918 Fifth street, Madison, collided Monday at 18th street and Madison avenue. The Allen woman, who said she made a stop sign but was unable to see the other auto, was charged with failure to yield right-of-way.

Record Bill Action

Gov. Kerner completed action on the 3000 bills passed by the 75th General Assembly before the June 30 recess. The legislature passed 1102 Senate bills and 1441 House bills, the largest numbers to date.

The governor approved 854 Senate bills and vetoed 208. Of the total House bills, he approved 1246, vetoed 180, and vetoed in part two. All figures are unofficial pending a final count.

The 74th General Assembly, which adjourned June 30, 1965, passed a total of 2211 bills, including 878 Senate bills and 1333 House bills. Gov. Kerner approved 762 Senate bills in 1965, vetoed 110 and vetoed in part six. Of the House bills, he approved 1180, vetoed 157 and vetoed in part seven.

National History Award
Illinois entrants have won two of the 1967 national awards of the American Association for State and Local History. The Association's Award of Merit went to Dr. Victor Hicken, professor of history at Western Illinois University, for his, "Illinois in the Civil War," published in 1966 by the University of Illinois Press.

The Albert B. Corey Award went to the Vermilion County Museum Society for "outstanding service in collecting, preserving, and disseminating information relating to the history of Vermilion County, Illinois, through its museum, junior history, and publications programs."

Nominations for the awards are made by each state, according to State Historian William K. Alderfer. Hicken and the Vermilion County Society were nominated by the Illinois State Historical Society. Figures included in a 12-month summary of activities at Dwight Reformatory for Women stated that 187 inmates were housed there when the fiscal year ended June 30. During the year an additional 182 passed through 30 to freedom, 53 to parole, 27 on conditional release, and the other 22 for various reasons.

At the end of June, 90 of the inmates were felons and 25 misdemeanants who were received in the year, and of these released in the same period, 159 were felons, and 23 misdemeanants.

Numerous additions were made to the program at Dwight to help in rehabilitation of inmates. Mrs. Margaret Moseley, superintendent, reported. These included expansion of education programs which now include elementary, high school, business education, TV college work, beauty culture and positive attitude classes.

Two full-time women teachers and one part-time teacher are employed, together with four inmate workers. Births at Lowest Level
Live births in Illinois reached their lowest level in 18 years during 1966, a special report of the Illinois Department of Public Health has revealed.

For the first time since 1950, births dropped below the 200,000-a-year mark with a grand total of 199,289. The highest record of births was in 1959 when a total of 259,871 were recorded. The records are kept by the Health Department's Bureau of Statistics.

The same report also listed the number of deaths in Illinois at the highest peak for the same period. Deaths were listed at 100,448 in 1966. Lowest in the 16-year period was 92,260 in 1960.

Order on Use of License Information

A request that Illinois Director of Insurance John Bolton notify all insurance companies that they will lose their licenses if they use unauthorized information to solicit individuals whose driver's licenses have been revoked or suspended, has been made by Secretary of State Paul Powell.

In a letter to Director Bolton, Powell said that if Bolton feels he is unable to comply with the request "my only alternative will then be to suspend the distribution to news media of any names of individuals who have been suspended or revoked for any reason, for a period of time necessary for us to determine that these unscrupulous firms are not obtaining the names of high risk insurance prospects from the office of the Secretary of State."

Four members of the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission were reappointed to new terms and Madison Mayor Stephen Maeras was named to a state commission this week by Gov. Kerner.

Reappointed to new SIMAPC terms expiring Oct. 1, 1973, are Eugene R. Burnett, 2245 Lee Avenue, Ralph Walker, Edgemont; Lamont H. Heidinger, Edwardsville; and Ralph E. Jacobs, Valmeyer.

Mayor Maeras was named to the commission to survey and study the problems pertaining to cities, villages and incorporated towns for a term expiring July 1, 1969.

City to Try Again to Solve Franklin Avenue Drainage

NEW GMC
PICK-UPS $2050
8' BED, REAR STEP BUMPER
HUNDLEY PONTIAC

A solution to the drainage problem on Franklin avenue in the vicinity of Clark avenue will be sought again by the Street committee of the Granite City council.

Eighth Ward Alderman Dawes said at Monday night's council session that water stands in the street for several days after every rain and that the city should find adequate means to provide drainage.

Dawes commented that he knew there was nothing in the budget for such a project, but that he hoped something could be worked out. "This is in a high tax area, and the street department has tried to drain the water to the Amos avenue drainage line, but has been unsuccessful."

The Street committee chairman, Alderman Johnson, also of the Eighth Ward, said he was "quite familiar" with the lack of drainage and that the committee will "look into it again and submit the same report to the council." Johnson added that the only solution would be installation of a lengthy drainage line that would be costly.

Under study by the council is a proposal for improvement to the Nameoki road-Iowa street intersection as designed for National Foods Co. by the engineering firm of Research Planning and Design Associates.

Engineering Bills
The council voted 11-4-2 to pay the engineering firm $2143 for work on special improvement projects that were cancelled. The amount is to be paid from the sales tax reserve. Mayor Partney, who has refused to sign the checks, pointed out payment was due on several of the project plans but that the firm had been ordered to stop the work to await the outcome of the city budget last summer.

The bills had been approved at earlier council sessions, and the mayor was asked Monday night to sign the checks. He did not indicate how much of the total would be paid.

Research Planning and Design is the city engineering firm and was asked to confer with state highway officials to determine the status of a 20-foot frontage road along Federal Aid Route 151 in West Granite between West 20th street and Cayuga street. The roadway was not shown on maps presented to the city for approval by the state.

Mayor Partney explained the map probably was one made up before the state agreed to the frontage road, and he was certain the roadway was included on later maps.

Nameoki Rd. Weeds
The state highway department is to be asked to cut weeds along the improved section of Nameoki road along the right-of-way. Alderman Fry pointed out the city has "a beautiful road there now, but it's becoming unsightly because of the high weeds."

Street Supt. Warfield said his department has never cut weeds along the thoroughfare, which is a state highway. Mayor Partney added that the final acceptance of the project by the state and the city has not yet been completed and that the responsibility should rest with the state.

Approval was given James Vaticoff for installation of a driveway at 2401 State street to provide off-street parking at The Den. Also approved was an ordinance to repeal a no-parking ordinance for the east side of State street at the 24th street parkway.

No Parking Zones
Another parking ordinance approved Monday night establishes a no-parking zone along the south side of Pontoon road between Wabash and Franklin avenues. Placed on first reading was an ordinance to establish no-parking zones on the north and south sides of 15th street for a distance of 75 feet east of Grand avenue.

Council members voted for department heads to be responsible for the servicing and maintenance of motor vehicles in their departments, and decided not to seek a contract for maintenance of all city vehicles. The contract with Sparky's Service station expired this week.

Voted down by the council was a bill for $30 submitted by David McFarland for repainting his auto which was sprayed accidentally by the city painter.

In a closed door caucus session in advance of the council session, the aldermen heard a report by the legal staff of possible settlement out of court of a claim against the city resulting from a sidewalk fall by a

Mitchell woman at 19th street and Edison avenue.

A resolution was adopted to sell the 1947 model inhibitor truck to Tom Reynolds for $20. His was the highest bid for the vehicle.

Permission was given the First Church of Christ, Scientist, to erect a directional sign on Madison avenue at 26th street. The church is located at 26th street and Delmar avenue.
